

Wind Ensemble

conducted by

STEPHEN CHENETTE

Debut Concert

Wednesday, Oct. 13, 1976

8:30 pm

PROGRAM

American Salute (1943) Morton Gould
(transc. by Philip J. Lang)

Tuba Concerto (1975) Walter Ross
Scott Irvine, tuba soloist

Lincoln Portrait (1943) Aaron Copland
J. Douglas McCullough, (transc. by Walter Beeler)
speaker

Intermission

Dirge (1964) Robert Starer

The Pines of Rome Respighi
(transc. by Guy M. Duker)

J. Douglas McCullough is Assistant Deputy Minister, Arts
Division of the Ministry of Culture and Recreation, Government of Ontario.

Scott Irvine is a fourth year student in the Bachelor of Music Education Course, and is a tuba student of Dr. Charles Daellenbach.

SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE PERSONNEL

Flutes

Eileen Fawcett, principal
Deborah Danbrook
Ann Fudge
Jana Nelson

Oboes

Leslie Young, principal
Jenifer Short

English horn

Garry Welwood

Clarinets

Jill Laforty, principal
Greg James
Rick Chodolok
Donald Lee
Judy Ann Stone
Judy Brock
Richard Hornsby, Eb
David Bourque, bass

Bassoons

Kevin Bailey, principal
Benson Bell
Brenda Adams, contra

Saxophones

Lenard McCarthy, principal
Cathy Stewart
Waldemar Jedrzejek, tenor
Bruno Degazio, baritone

Trumpets

Kevin Gamble, principal
Don Lowrie
Paul Woodford
Mary Ann Lucas
Bryce Walker
Chris Howells

French horns

Patricia Russell, co-principal
Diane Fair, co-principal
Leah Glover
Barbara Gazen
Colleen Young

Trombones

Helen Hudson, principal
Howard Lee
Steve Fralick
Glen Weger

Euphonium

Tim Cummings

Tubas

Doug Manning
Scott Irvine
Jane Noyes

Percussion

Ron Hesketh
Mike Perry
John McCulloch
Beverley Johnston
Dave Campion

Piano

Philip Thomson

Celeste

Laurie Pickering

Harp

Jo-Ann Weisbarth

Manager and Librarian

Garry Welwood

Next Wind Ensemble Concert - SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1976
at 3:00 p.m.

Next Event: SUNDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1976 -

University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra at 8:30 p.m.